EXTRA LINE: The College provides an extra line for you to utilise as a study session; time for major works, catch-up, library research, etc. Some staff may offer tutorials during these sessions. When the extra line is in session 1, you need to arrive at school for Connect. If at the end of the day, you may sign out early. If during the day, it should be used as a study session. You may not leave the College. You should be either in the Library or the learning hub.

TAFE: Lines 2, 6 and 7 are the lines where TAFE courses are included.

You will notice that the bell times are the same each day. Except Friday's, where the day finishes at 12.50pm.

Each term starts with Week A

LINES: Each line comprises 4 x 100' lessons and 1 x 50' lesson.

ASSEMBLIES: Formal assemblies will be on Monday Week A Session 2. Year Assemblies and Connect sessions may occasionally be held during part of session 2 on other days (except Wednesdays). These will generally be short and students will return to their timetabled class afterwards.

BREAKS: Recess and Lunch are now both 30' long so those who miss breakfast will have more canteen time at recess to get served.
